

IAER Research Note Author Submission Checklist

- Total length of the double-spaced Word document does not exceed 800 words at initial submission.
- The research is double-spaced on letter size paper with 1-inch margins and 12pt font.
- The research note is submitted in Word format. PDF is NOT acceptable.
- The research note gives a clear idea of the niche in the literature that the paper fills in the opening sentence.
- Use of terms, such as “I,” “my,” “we” and “our,” is restricted to terms of personal opinion. All acronyms, no matter how common, are written out on first use.
- The body of the research note may not include equations, footnotes, figures or tables. All figures and tables must be included in an Online Supplemental Appendix saved in a separate file from the research note and must be cited in the body of the research note.
- Citations to previously published works should appear in parentheses within the body of the text. Citations include the author(s) last name, name of journal or book and year of publication, like so: (Author(s) Last Name, Journal Name, Year). If citing a data source, a URL should be provided.
- The author has paid the submission fee.
